

FREE ACADEMY FOR HISTORICAL KEYBOARD INSTRUMENTS Schöntal Master Classes with Miklós Spányi for harpsichord, clavichord, fortepiano and tangent piano

The master class weekends with Miklós Spányi will take place in the picturesque valley of Schöntal in Neustadt an der Weinstraße, two to three weekends per year, usually from Friday afternoon to Sunday. Miklós Spányi's collection houses, beside clavichords, tangent pianos and fortepianos, perhaps the worldwide largest private collection of 16-foot harpsichords, both 'modern' and historical.

Upcoming master classes: 16 - 18 February 2024

The maximum amount of participants is restricted to 5 active and 4 passive students. The participants have the freedom to choose pieces from 16th, 17th and 18th century keyboard repertoire if no repertoire is otherwise specified.

Course fee for active participants: 180 €, for passive participants: 80 €

Applications per email: spanyichord@gmail.com

Active participants are required to send a short audio recording of at least two works of differing styles with the application.
